

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 623 - SB 642

March 1, 2015

SUMMARY OF BILL: Deletes a provision of Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-11-141 relative to bail that was ruled unconstitutional by the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals in State v. Burgins.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- The provision in question allowed a court to revoke and terminate a defendant's bond and order the defendant held without bail pending trial if the defendant was charged with an offense committed during the defendant's release on bail.
- Article I, § 15 of the Tennessee Constitution states that "all prisoners shall be bailable except for capital offences." The Tennessee Criminal Court of Appeals held in State v. Burgins, 2014 Tenn. Crim. App. LEXIS 1089 (Ten. Crim. App. 2014), that Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-11-141(b) was unconstitutional as it allowed a defendant to be held without bail for a noncapital offense.
- The bill repeals Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-11-141(b). The Administrative Office of the Courts confirms that the bill will not significantly impact the courts' caseloads or operations so as to require any additional appropriations.
